ENDURANCE BY RIGHT.

Early in the month of December, 1900, at the annual Woodard & Shanklin sale held at Lexington, Ky., a bay yearling filly was bought by Col. William S. Barnes, proprietor of the famous Melbourne stud, for the modest sum of $250. She had been put in the sale list by Col. Milton Young, he having purchased her and her dam from Gen. W. H. Jackson. She was by Inspector B.—Early Morn and Colonel Barnes named her Endurance by Right. Then little thought of, she is now the most famous of her age and sex in America, and one about which so competent an authority as Hugh D. McIntyre recently wrote: "Endurance by Right is not only the best filly I ever saw, but she is in my judgment far and away the best two-year-old of the season. Neither Yankee, Blue Girl, Nasturtium nor Heno is in her class, in my opinion. Should she train on, and there is no apparent reason now why she should not, she will be in a class by herself next season." This is not an extravagant estimate. Any weight and any distance suits her and her speed is of the highest order. A horse of her equable temperament is more likely to train on well than a high strung, nervous horse.

In the spring of 1901 she was sent to Memphis along with a dozen or more horses belonging to Colonel Barnes and put in training. Apparently her trainer was not specially impressed with her promise, but that shrewd judge of the capabilities of a race horse, John W. Schorr, saw enough in her work to make him desire to possess her, so he made a deal whereby he secured her running qualities for, it is said, the sum of $1,200. It was a bad deal for Colonel Barnes and a notably good one for Mr. Schorr. With the racing of the year practically over, except on the winter tracks, a recital of her performances is in order and will do to hold in memory when the campaign of 1902 comes up for consideration.

Her first start was in a half mile dash for a purse at Memphis last spring, April 19, which she won by two lengths from Herodiade with Attelle third, Lena Schady, Winter Bell, Lady Burlington, Hunter Raine, Janbert and Easter Boy running unplaced. She was known to have shown well in her work and went to the post a 6 to 5 favorite. The time was 53 seconds and as subsequent racing has shown she by far outclassed her opponents. She started no more at Memphis, being sent from there to Louisville.

Here she was sent to the post on the opening day of the meeting to contest for a purse at a half mile and was a 7 to 10 favorite in a field of eleven fillies. She won by a length in 49 seconds, running on the outside all the way and necessarily covering much more ground than the majority of her opponents. Miss Thomey was second and Scortic third, the unplaced ones being Drummond, Our Jessie, Lady Maxim, Dodie S., Cousine, The Fashion, Pearl Ban, Miss Gaines and Attelle, the latter being left at the post. At the same track May 8 she met the first defeat that marks her career. The track was muddy, the distance five furlongs and as usual she was an odds on favorite at 7 to 10 but third was the best she could do, Runnels, a 40 to 1 shot, leading throughout and winning by three lengths with Harry Beck second, a length and a half before Endurance by Right. It was the big filly's introduction to mud and she could not extend herself in it, a useful point for her admirers of today to bear in mind. Behind her finished Belle's Commoner, Kentucky Muddle, Corinne C., Lady Appleby and The Boston, and the race was run in 1:03. This defeat ended her Louisville campaign.

She was now taken to Latona to fill her first stake engagement of the year—the Clipetta—a dash of five furlongs for fillies. The race was run May 16, and the starters were Endurance by Right, 110 pounds; Foundling, 112; Lingo, 106½; Almanzo, 103; Julia Junkin, 103; Mamie English, 107; Jean Raphael, 103; Throstle, 104½, and Wedding March, 107. She won but only at the end of a sharp drive. Foundling, a smart filly herself, took the lead and the rail and held it to near the end where Endurance by Right, running on the extreme outside nearly all the way, got up and driving out won by a half length in 1:02½. Lingo was third a length behind Foundling. It was a smashing good race for the winner as, owing to her position, she covered many more lengths than Foundling. The stake was worth $1,235 net and Endurance by Right was a 6 to 5 favorite.

The good filly was now brought to Chicago, and here she achieved fame and won for herself a host of adherents ready to back her to defeat any filly in the land, to say nothing of the colts. Her bow to the local race going public was at Hawthorn June 1, when she was brought out to do battle for the Lassie Stakes at five furlongs. The starters were Endurance by Right, 118; Do-made with her and she finished last. Endurance by Right ran second to the stretch then drew out and won easing up, Throstle second two lengths before Mabel Winn. Time, 56½ seconds.

On the opening day of the Washington Park meeting she proved that she was able to show her dainty heels to the good colts as effectively as she had been doing with those of her own sex. This was in a dash of four and a half furlongs in which with 120 pounds up she met Magi, 115; Pentecost, 123; Blue Mantel, 111; Runnels, 118; The Four Hundred, 115; Red Hook, 118; Bridge, 118; Frank Mc, 111; St. Sever, 108; Bragg, 118; William H., 118; The Boston, 115, and Corinne Unland, 108, and ran away from them, winning by two lengths in 54½ seconds, with Magi second and Pentecost third.

Then she emphasized her excellence by winning the Lakeside Stakes, June 25, and putting on record a grand performance. Allan-a-Dale with 111 pounds in the saddle had just created a furor by breaking the track record at five furlongs, running it in 1:00½, but she immediately overshadowed this fine racing feat by taking reen, 115; April, 110; Pronta, 110 and Barouche, 115. As by rights she should have been, she was a 7 to 10 favorite and the winner, but did not appear to have any too easy a time of it, as Woods had to shake her up sharply when a furlong out. She won by a length and a half however, with Doreen second, a length before April. The time was fast, 1:01. Doreen herself ran a good race, the best she had shown since coming from California.

Her next essay was at Harlem June 12, when she was started in the Petite Stakes, a dash of 4 furlongs, for which eleven fillies went to the post. They were Endurance by Right, 120 pounds; Throstle, 110; Mabel Winn, 112; April, 110; Autumn Leaves, 115; Barouche, 115; Lingo, 105; Quality, 105; Mamie English, 115; Hoodwink, 112 and Doreen, 115. There was a notion abroad that Doreen was dangerous and the reflection of this notion in the betting ring caused the opening odds of 6 to 5 against Endurance by Right to expand to 11 to 5 at post time. As a sequel she won in a canter by three lengths while Doreen got off so badly that no effort was up 122 pounds and running the distance in one minute flat. Opposed to her were Sweet Billie, 115 pounds; Sister Jeanie, 115; Wainamoinen, 120; Flora Pomona, 118; Pronta 110 and Doreen 115. Sweet Billie led around to and into the stretch at a heart breaking rate of speed, with Endurance by Right running in third place to midway of the stretch where she set sail for the flying leader and soon having her in trouble, drew away and won by two lengths amid thunderous applause, her rush down the stretch being of the order that makes people get on their feet and open their throats wide.

This grand filly confirmed her greatness July 20 by taking up 122 pounds in an overnight $1,400 handicap at five furlongs and defeating Elsie L., 114; Old Hutch, 110; Ed Austin, 120; Rosewar, 100; J. V. Kirby, 109; Janbert, 112; Sister Jeanie, 110; Jack Rattlin, 112; Jordan, 107; Wainamoinen, 115, and South Elkhorn, 109, doing the distance in 1:00½, and winning with a tremendous burst of speed through

CONEY ISLAND J. C. STAKES.

Owners and trainers are reminded that the splendid list of great stakes offered by the Coney Island Jockey Club closes for entries at midnight tomorrow. The list embraces many of the most important annual fixtures of the American turf and no owner who thinks he has a good horse in his stable can afford to let the time for making entries pass by. The well known Foam and Surf Stakes for two-year-olds, with $1,500 added to each are to be run in 1902. For 1903 the stakes are the Tidal for three-year-olds, $20,000; the Mornmaid for three-year-old fillies $1,250 added, the famous Lawrence Realization with $10,000 added, the Great Filly Stakes with $5,000 added, the Century, $20,000 guaranteed, and the renewal of the Annual Champion of the value of $25,000. For 1904 the Lawrence Realization with $10,000 added is offered. DAILY RACING FORM will furnish entry blanks to all who may apply.

ELMENDORF SIRE.

There are over four thousand acres in Elmendorf, and art has combined with nature to make it one of the finest country estates in the world. A number of blue grass farms have been thrown together by Mr. James B. Haggin, and around the entire tract has been built a massive stone wall. This feature alone was enormously expensive. The residence, now approaching completion, is probably the most imposing in Kentucky, and it stands on a hill which commands a wide stretch of country. Stables, sheds and other buildings, as well as fences, are being removed, so that nothing may break the stretch of green and mar the prospect. Standing by the lofty colonnades, Mr. Haggin will look out upon undulating pastures, in which highly bred horses graze, and be in truth monarch of all that he surveys. The stable for driving horses, near the house, is fireproof and of beautiful architectural design. The Kenny house has been converted into a laundry, with sleeping rooms overhead for domestics. The track on which the ex-trotting queen, Nancy Hanks, 2:04, received her first lessons in harness, is now kept soft for the runners, and we found the big stable, built in the palmy days of Richard Peniston, full of two and three-year-olds in training. There are 400 thoroughbred mares in breeding ranks at Elmendorf, and the trotting brood mares number fifty-two. The thoroughbred weanlings are well grown, and the number is ninety-seven. The crop for 1902 will be more than double this. A steam mill, for crushing oats and grinding corn, is run exclusively for the farm, and everything about it is as tidy as could be desired. The stallions are kept in a stable which is merely a row of fireproof box stalls. George Kessler is a horse that carries the blood of champions. He is by the great Salvator, out of the great race mare Miss Woodford, winner of thirty-seven races. He was unfortunate in his races, but won the Great American Stakes. He is an impressive looking stallion, has a number of weanlings, and twenty-six mares were bred to him last spring. Juvenal, by Springfield, by St. Albans, by Stockwell, out of Satire, by Blair Athol, by Stockwell, is now twelve years old, and prominent among his get are Chacornac (a Futurity winner), Musette and Satirist. His chestnut coat and white markings contrasted sharply with the blue grass carpet on which he stood, and his form compelled admiration. Twenty-seven mares were bred to him last spring. Order, by Ben d'Or, by Doncaster, by Stockwell, out of Angelica, by Galopin was bred by the Duke of Westminster, and stands

NOTES OF THE TURF.

For sire and son to meet in the same race is a novelty, and it is not recalled that it has ever happened on the running turf before November 12 at Oakland, Cal., where, in the sixth race, El Oriente, bay colt, 3, by San Venado—Orange Leaf, won. His sire, San Venado, brown horse, 6, by Duncombe—Lizzie B., by Hindoo, was favorite for the race at 7 to 5, but finished next to last in a field of nine.

J. B. Haggin, Elmendorf Stud, Kentucky, and Rancho Del Paso Stud, California, has recently purchased through his agent, John Mackey, the English stallion Gerolstein, brown horse, foaled 1895, by St. Serf—Geraldine, by Barcalaine, out of Lucy Ashton, by Lammermoor, etc. Gerolstein was a good racehorse and his breeding should make him a desirable addition to Mr. Haggin's list of stallions.

Jockey Lucien Lyne, who has been riding at Latonia, is attracting the attention of Bennings owners. He received two messages last Friday at Cincinnati requesting his services at the eastern track, but he has engaged with Robert Walden for the New Orleans meeting, and will not go elsewhere.

Cincinnati papers are beginning to kick about form reversals at Latonia. Great stress was laid upon the poor showings of Lady Brockway and Nelse Morris last Friday. The former's poor effort was foreshadowed by the betting, which went from 3 to 2 to 3 to 1 by post time.

Owner Bill Daly is beginning to surprise the talent at Bennings by putting jockeys on his horses instead of inexperienced lads. Last Monday he put Burns on Locket, to the amazement of all hands.

the last sixteenth after having seemed to be hopelessly entangled and pocketed.

This terminated her western career and she was taken to Saratoga, where she was started August 13 for a $700 purse over a six furlongs course. She carried 122 pounds and had for opponents Tribes Hill, 106; Gunfire, 117; Old Hutch, 98; Belle's Commoner, 110; Sister Juliet, 103; Lady Sterling, 99; Grail, 105, and Whiskey King, 113. It was only an exercise gallop for her to defeat this field, and yet as good as 11 to 5 was an offer against her at post time. She was never extended and won by a length and a half in 1:14½, with Tribes Hill second and Gunfire third. This was her only start at Saratoga, but while there Mr. Schorr purchased her outright from Colonel Barnes for a price that has never been authentically stated.

From Saratoga Endurance by Right was taken to Sheephead Bay to meet the shining lights of her age. Her first essay was in the Flatbush Stakes September 4. It was a dash of seven furlongs for which the starters were Nasturtium, 115; Goldsmith, 115; Endurance by Right, 112; Baron, 105; Sir Oliver, 115; Smart Set, 120; Flywheel, 115; Dixieline, 115 and Hyphen, 115. It was a grand field, and a grand race resulted. Displaying a marvelous flight of speed, Nasturtium led from start to finish and won by a half length, with Goldsmith second as far in front of Endurance by Right, the seven furlongs having been covered in such remarkable time as 1:25½. The others were outpaced throughout. Mr. Schorr stated afterwards that the filly was not at her best that day and besides she was pinned in between the two colts at the end and so at a decided disadvantage. From that day on she never knew defeat and became the idol of all New York patrons of racing. Her next start was at five furlong with 126 pounds up for a purse which she won in a canter, defeating an indifferent field in 1:07½, being a 1 to 3 favorite. This race was run September 6. Four days later carrying 124 pounds she beat Caughnawaga, 107; Belle's Commoner, 107 and six others at six furlongs, done in 1:13½ with supreme ease, being again for a purse.

September 14 she won her most valuable stake of her two-year-old career. This was the Great Eastern Handicap at six furlongs, $1,500 guaranteed, for which she carried 126 pounds. She won in a canter by two lengths in 1:13, defeating Sombbrero, 107; Otis, 114; Feme Sole, 98; Peninsula, 100; Par Excellence, 100; Lombré, 99; Igniter, 113; Saturday, 111; Major Daingerfield, 108; Jim Tully, 106; Bon Mot, 90, and Leslie Bruce, 88. Despite the big field she was a 7 to 10 favorite. This was her last race at Sheephead Bay, her next start being at Gravesend September 20 for the Willow Stakes, a dash of five and a half furlongs for two-year-old fillies. She carried 119 pounds and had Hanover Queen, 115; Rockwater, 107; Early Eve, 99; Amicitia, 119, and Pretoria, 99, for opponents. It was supposed Mr. Belmont's fine filly Amicitia would be able to give her a good race, but it was the same old story, "won in a canter," she finished first in 1:08½ by two and a half lengths with Hanover Queen second and Rockwater third. This success she followed up with the most remarkable performance of her career when she won the Holly Handicap, also a dash of five and a half furlongs. For this she was given the high impost of 130 pounds, the other starters being Whiskey King, 110; Chilton, 115; King Hanover, 115; Tribes Hill, 104; Grail, 98; Masterman, 117; Lord Quex, 97; Setanet, 99; The Rival, 113; Smart Set, 120; Pentecost, 118, and Highlander, 116. It was a duel between her and Whiskey King throughout and at the end she was an easy winner by a length in 1:07, with Chilton a poor third. It was a performance without precedent in the history of racing in this country and it was immediately declared that she was the greatest filly that had ever appeared in America.

The result of this race was talk of a match with Mr. Mackay's crack colt Heno over the "about" six furlongs course that led the Brooklyn Jockey Club to offer the Third Special, with $1,500 added, expecting others to start, but only the two went to the post. Endurance by Right took the lead soon after the start and kept it to the end, winning handsily by a length in 1:08½, which broke the record for the course by nearly two seconds. It was such a remarkably speedy performance that Heno was in no wise discredited by his defeat.

Endurance by Right was then sold to Mr. William C. Whitney for the reputed price of $35,000, and started but once more. This was for the Champagne Stakes at Morris Park October 19, for which her new stable companion, Yankee, accompanied her to the post. As their only opponents were Caughnawaga and Luck and Charity, they galloped along under strong restraint throughout, the filly finishing first by two lengths, with Yankee second and Caughnawaga third, the seven furlongs being done in 1:28. This was the termination of a truly glorious career that may be more than equaled in 1902.

16.1. He is thirteen years old, carries the blood of Orme, sire of Flying Fox, and is himself the sire of Ornament. He is a horse that everyone asks to see when they go to Elmendorf, is high in flesh, and his complement of mares last spring was thirty. High Order, b. c. 4, by Order—Tongese, by Hanover, she out of Mollie L., by Longfellow, will enter the stud next spring. As a two-year-old he was second in the Junior Champion at Gravesend, and as a three-year-old he won two out of three starts, including the Hudson Stakes. Bathampton, by Hampton, by Lord Clifden, by Newminster, dam The Bat, by Hermit, by Newminster, is a horse of rare quality and very kind in disposition. The climate of Kentucky evidently agrees with him, and he was bred to twenty-five mares the past season. Arkie, a brown horse, foaled in 1894, is by Arklow, by Ben d'Or, by Doncastar, by Stockwell, out of Angelica, by Galopin, and he is liked so well that twenty-nine mares were bred to him this year. Shapfell, by Kendal, by Ben d'Or, out of Angelica, by Galopin, we found on the sick list. Duncombe is a brown horse seventeen years old, by Speculum, by Vedette, by Voltigeur, out of Fair Helen, by General Peel, by Young Melbourne, and he carries his age well. Twenty mares were bred to him. A chestnut horse of marked vitality was led out to halter. He had been rolling in the loose dirt and looked untidy, but the dust could not blind you to his strong points. This chestnut horse was Salvator, who was never unplaced but once during his racing career and who won $120,365. His mile at Monmouth Park in 1:35½ is unbeaten, and it placed a halo around the head of the son of Prince Charley and Salina, daughter of Lexington. Salvator was foaled at Elmendorf in the days of Daniel Swigert, and he is fifteen years old. He is heavier than ever before in his life, although he takes a great deal of exercise in the paddock, and was bred to eighteen mares in the spring. Another horse that came out of his box with mud-stained coat was Ben Holladay, a bay, foaled in 1893, by Hanover—Mollie L., by Longfellow, she out of Mollie McCann, by Hunter's Lexington. He is a nervous horse, with strong quality, and October 23, 1897, ran one mile and three-quarters, over the hill, at Morris Park, 118 pounds up, in 2:59½. This was a record performance until October 13, 1900, when Ethelbert ran the distance in 2:58½. The mares bred to Ben Holladay last spring were some of the best at Elmendorf, and their number was twenty-three. Kinley Mack was restless as he stood on the stable lawn, albeit he stopped now and then to nibble at a bunch of clover. He was foaled in 1896, stands 16.2, and is by Ilington—Songstress, by Luke Blackburn, she out of Malibran, by Cathedral. Although a partial cripple, he did, in 1900, what no other horse has done, won the Brooklyn Handicap, 122 pounds, in 2:10, and the Suburban Handicap, 125 pounds, in 2:06½. Mr. Haggin will give him a great chance in the stud next spring. Two of the trotting stallions at Elmendorf are Worthier, by Advertiser—Waxana, dam of Sunol and Dan Cupid, 2:09½. Mares of prepotent blood will be bred to them. There is much work yet to be done at Elmendorf, and when the architects and skilled laborers take their leave Mr. J. B. Haggin will have one of the best located and best equipped country seats in the world.—Turf, Field and Farm.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

At Bennings last Tuesday a very interesting case was furnished by the two-year-old colt O'Hagen, which won his race easily, but was found to be 4 pounds over. Under former rules this would have disqualified the colt, but the amendments within the last year leave this point discretionary with officials, provided they are satisfied that no fraud is intended. In this case, however, there was a parley of fully twenty minutes before the matter was settled, and the hopes and fears of the backers of the various placed horses were a sight to witness and listen to. The horses were finally placed as they had finished.

A rumor has been going the rounds that Starter Brown, who has been wielding the flag at Latonia, will recommend that the fines imposed by him during the meeting just ended be revoked and the money refunded to the jockeys. Some rather heavy penalties have been imposed, but they were necessary to obedience at the post. The boys can ill afford to suffer the penalty, and in some instances they have been compelled to surrender their entire earnings. "I am not disposed to work hardships on the boys," said Starter Brown, "but it was a case of soaking them heavily for their disobedience or allow them to do the starting to suit themselves. I think they understand pretty thoroughly now that I am master of the situation when we get together at the post."

The selling race war still continues at Latonia. It has been carried on at a merry clip of late between W. L. Hazelip and Mose Goldblatt. Velma Clark was entered to be sold for $500 in the fourth race last Friday, and when she was led under the hammer Mose stepped out into the track and bid her up to $700. Hazelip bit his lip and bid the customary $5 extra and sent her back to the barn. "Hazelip started that game," said Goldblatt afterward, "and I'll bet $500 to a red apple that I make him cry 'enough' before we get through. I have cost him twice as much as he has me at this meeting, and we are both going to New Orleans."

Winning stables at the Aqueduct meeting were as follows: J. J. McCafferty, $2,910; J. H. McCormick, $2,545; Jacob Worth, $2,115; D. Gideon, $1,925; N. Bennington, $1,610; T. D. Sullivan, $1,480; B. Schreiber, $1,410; J. B. Haggin, $1,230; C. F. Dwyer, $1,200; F. M. Taylor, $1,200; A. L. Aste, $1,190; G. Borkel, $1,190; A. Featherstone, $1,160; Miles Finlan, $1,080; W. M. Barrick, $980; J. L. McGinnis, $960; G. A. Muller & Co., $930; J. Grant Lyman, $900; M. Ciancy, $850; P. S. P. Randolph, $760; Dryer & McGuire, $650; L. Stuart, $680; J. E. Gardner, $640; A. C. McCafferty, $610; J. E. Richardson, $600; J. W. Schorr & Co., $560; The Pepper Stable, $500; J. B. Doerr, Jr., $550; C. Barker, $550; F. C. McLewee & Co., $550; E. Reynolds, $540; Thomas Shiels, $530; F. Bruhns & Co., $510; W. H. McCorkle, $500.

The Commoner, for which Gen. W. H. Jackson paid $15,000, has improved wonderfully since arriving at Belle Meade. The son of Hanover is one of this famous sire's best looking sons, and his career as a stallion is full of promise. The Commoner's get are winning fame for him. There are a number of General Jackson's best mares in foal to him, from which great results are expected.

CALIFORNIA AUTUMN RACING.

In accordance with its annual custom DAILY RACING FORM here prints a condensed table showing the results of the racing at the California State Fair at Sacramento last September and at the two great fairs that followed after, the Golden Gate Fair at Oakland and the Agricultural Fair at Los Angeles. Many good performances were recorded at these meetings and students of form will find these tables extremely useful in connection with the racing now going on at Oakland.

The Commoner, for which Gen. W. H. Jackson paid $15,000, has improved wonderfully since arriving at Belle Meade. The son of Hanover is one of this famous sire's best looking sons, and his career as a stallion is full of promise. The Commoner's get are winning fame for him. There are a number of General Jackson's best mares in foal to him, from which great results are expected.

CALIFORNIA AUTUMN RACING.

Winner—Ch. f, by Albert—Entrica.
Went to post at 2:15. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. It was a question of jockeys at the finish and Landry showed out rode Lyne. Fleuron finished fast and responded well to vigorous urging. Sad Sam showed speed and stuck it out in gamer fashion than usual. Arachne made up ground in the stretch and finished strongly. Flop was raced to defeat by Sad Sam in the run to the stretch. Mr. Phinizy was in a pocket all the way. Jim Nap performed poorly.

Scratched—(29446) Ciales, 107; 29371 Snave, 107; 29419 Sim W., 104; 29165 Myrtle Van, 100; 29419 Aleo, 100.

Time, 23, 44, 49, 1:14 1/2.

Winner—Br. g, by Traverse—Belle of Mount Zoah.
Went to post at 2:45. At post 3 minutes. Start straggling. Won ridden out; second easily. Bill Massie showed speed throughout, drew out of the field at the eighth post and scored a lucky win. A dog ran across the track in the stretch, causing the others to falter, and but for this Fr. Admission would almost surely have won. Kunja ran well and finished stoutly. Baronet and Frank McConnell raced each other to exhaustion and both tired and quit.

Leenja took the lead on the stretch turn and, finishing fast and strongly through the stretch, outstayed the others in a rattling good finish. Paul Creyton did his best and was well ridden, but was tiring at the end. St. Hera was in a pocket most of the journey. Margie S. showed improvement. The winner, in for $600, was run up by J. Cherished would have been closer up with a good start and was pushed out hard all the way. Surmise should have been second but Smith kept hitting him on the head with his whip in the last furlong. Carl Kahler is a quitter and had no mishaps. Piederich got off badly and would have been a contender with an even break. He was turned around when the barrier went up.

Went to post at 2:29. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second easily. Ned Dennis finished fast in the good going and is improving. Searchlight ran well but was forced into the deep going in the stretch and tired at the end. Hungarian was frequently impeded. Alas quit badly. Spy Lark ran well to the stretch.

Scratched—21227 Aunt Mary, 104.

Winner—Br. f. by Preston-pans—Mura.
Went to post at 2:42. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Muresca, Quadra, St. Sever and Sir Lewis were favored by the going, but Muresca was best and never in trouble. Quadra ran a good race under bad handling. St. Sever ran his race and finished strongly. Sir Lewis made up ground, but was not well ridden. Royalty and Commissioner Forster were evidently greatly handicapped by the heavy track.

Overweights—Lady Drew, 1 pound.
